Just checked with Pam. You're right, it was [REDACTED]'s mom that passed away. Can you send me [REDACTED]'s address so I can also send her a note. [REDACTED] won't be back from her cruise until the 20th.

You're welcome for the help - it was fun to see and talk to everyone at Admin, and working with Kay and Madonna was fun too, they were such sweet ladies.

As for the counting... ugh! I'll work on putting some notes together about the evening in case Russell Weisfield raises his ugly head again.

Hi Kim – Yes Pam had mentioned this to me too. I thought I had heard Pam say that it was [REDACTED]'s mother though – could you clarify that it is in fact the father and not the mother?

I agree – I had intended to send a special note to her, but I would like to be confident in which parent first.

Thanks so much for all of your work to prepare me for orchestrating the election yesterday and for all of your work as an election judge. The work you did for the count was terrific and I know it was a tremendous amount of work at the end of the evening after a very long election day.

Thank you!!

Jen:

Wanted to let you know that Pam informed me last night that [REDACTED] [REDACTED] who worked with her at Station 15, told Pam that her father had passed away the day before, and her husband was just recently diagnosed with pancreatic cancer. That was the first I had heard of this, and Pam was shocked she didn't call you and cancel being an election judge. [REDACTED] said she had made a commitment, and intended to keep it.

Maybe a hand-written note to [REDACTED] would go the extra mile... just a thought!

Thanks,
Kim
